PODCAST DETAILS

NOBLE GIBBENS
EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE COACH
PODCAST HOST: "EQ GANGSTER"

NOBLE GIBBENS

Noble is a formerly emotionally clueless West Point grad, US Army veteran who used to jump out of airplanes for a living who found himself yelling at his wife, being short with his daughter, and not living up to his potential...and he didn't know why. He even became financially Independent at age 30...in a business cult...for very emotionally unhealthy reasons.

That's when he discovered Emotional Intelligence (EQ). Learning about foreign, "new" concepts called "feelings and emotions" was scarier than anything he ever faced in the military or his 23+ year business career.

But an amazing thing happened: every area of his life started to transform for the better, and he started sharing his emotional fitness journey on the EQ Gangster podcast.

1. Certified Emotional Intelligence Practitioner
2. Accredited Facilitator for The Five Behaviors of a Cohesive Team™.
3. West Point grad, Ranger qualified Army veteran.
4. 20+ years experience coaching people on leadership & people skills.

"Nothing I've done has had as much of an impact on my business & life as growing my Emotional intelligence. I am passionate about bringing this important skill to the world in an approachable & relatable way."
